

Teachers as Readers

Tuesday 5th February 4.30-5.30

Classroom Resources Collection, Bognor Regis Learning Resources Centre

Are you a primary teacher or training to be one?

Would you enjoy finding out about new books you could share with your pupils?

Come along to find out about new stories and poems to share with your class and discover how the University of Chichester can support you with resources. This event aims to support UKLA research (Teachers as Readers: Building communities of readers, 2007-8) @OpenUni_RFP by helping teachers to discover more about children's literature, share good practice and support children's reading for pleasure.

- Book swap – bring a children's book that you have enjoyed and swap it for another one
- Book Raffle
- Ideas for improving practice when teaching poetry in the classroom
- Please bring a poem to share with the group
- Please bring your own laptop

Promotional photographs may be taken at this event. Please let the event organisers know if you do not wish your photograph to be taken. Parking is £1 per hour (payable at Pay and Display machines). Free parking after 5pm.

All Welcome. Free Event. Please book a place using Eventbrite:

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/teachers-as-readers-reading-group-tickets-50969447991>